RELIEF! NO BLISTER!It Soothes and Relieves Like a Mustard Plaster Without the Burn or Sting

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. It does all the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster—does it better and does not blister. You do not have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub it on—and usually the pain is gone!

Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 20c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

DO NOT AGREE WITH HOLCOMB ON AMENDMENT

Attorney Harrison Howitt, a Democrat, of New Haven, was asked by the Connecticut Woman Suffrage Association to give an opinion on the suffrage question raised by Governor Holcomb. Mr. Howitt says, in part:

"Governor Holcomb's opinion that it would be in contravention of his duty to support the constitution of the state to favor ratification of the suffrage amendment or to do any act which might aid in bringing such ratification about, except by vote not only of the legislature, but all of the people of the state, seems open to question."

"The General Assembly of the State of Connecticut, by special act approved May 19, 1869, ratified the 15th amendment to the Constitution of the United States without submission to the electors of the state of Connecticut. Eminent authority, namely the lawyers who drafted the 1875 Revision of the General Statutes of Connecticut, among whom were Stinson, Baldwin, afterward chief justice, and governor, and Hon. George C. Woodruff, of Litchfield, in a note to No. 2 of Article 6 of the Constitution of the State of Connecticut, which limited suffrage to white male citizens, state that this provision was 'altered by the 15th amendment to the Constitution of the United States and the legislation of Congress thereunder.' They append the same note to the 8th amendment to the Constitution of the State of Connecticut, which contained a similar provision. This was in advance of the adoption of the 23rd amendment to the constitution of the state erasing the word 'white' in the 8th amendment, which 23rd amendment was not adopted until October, 1876. Either the 15th amendment could be made nugatory by any state, or else it of itself altered the state constitution and Connecticut has always maintained the position that the 15th amendment was and is valid and binding. If it was legally adopted and, as Governor Baldwin and his associates said, it altered our Constitution, I can see no reason why a similar alteration cannot properly be brought about by a ratification of this amendment in the same manner in which the 15th amendment was ratified."

Harrison B. Freeman, a Republican of Hartford, says in part:

"The statement issued on behalf of Governor Holcomb that the women would not have the right to vote in Connecticut after the ratification of the Suffrage amendment to the United States Constitution, except for Presidential elections and United States senators and congressmen, until the state constitution has also been amended by action of the electors of this state is contrary to the decisions of the United States Supreme Court and against all the precedents established when the 15th Amendment, giving suffrage to the negro, was adopted."

"This amendment needed no state action to make it effective and the negro received the ballot in all states of the Union, including Connecticut as soon as the amendment was ratified, and many years before the state constitutions were changed to conform to it."

"The Federal Suffrage Amendment provides that 'The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.' If ratified by 36 states it needs no amendment to a state constitution to make it effective."

"In Neal vs. Delaware, 103 U. S. 370, the Supreme Court of the United States held that the adoption of the 15th Amendment, giving suffrage to the negro, rendered inoperative a provision in the then existing constitution of the State of Delaware whereby the right of suffrage was limited to the white race. Under this and similar decisions, the Suffrage Amendment—which is identical with the 15th Amendment except that the former substitutes 'sex' for 'race'—when once ratified, is self-executory in the United States without further action on the part of any state."

HENRY FORD TO FIGHT FOR SENATE SEAT

Washington, March 23 — Henry Ford will make a more determined fight than ever over the seat of Senator Newberry (Mich.) following the conviction of the Michigan Senator. It became known yesterday that Alfred Lucking, attorney for Mr. Ford, wrote a letter on March 17 to Senator Dillingham (Vt.), chairman of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, as the Newberry case was near the end, but before the verdict was announced. Mr. Lucking asked that the committee open and hurry the inquiry.

The committee will hold a meeting today to map out its program of investigation, upon which it will base its report to the Senate whether Mr. Ford should be seated in the place of Mr. Newberry. The apparent intention of Senator Newberry not to resign makes the action of the Senate committee of paramount importance. The Senate may decide that, regardless of Mr. Newberry's fitness to hold his seat, Mr. Ford was not legally elected. The Republican governor of Michigan then will fill the vacancy by appointment and the slim Republican majority in the Senate will not be affected.

NO DANGER OF EPIDEMIC.

Despite a total of 13 cases of scarlet fever in the city there is no danger of an epidemic of the disease, said Dr. William H. Coon, Health Officer. The total number of diseases reported last March was five but the Health Officer called attention to the fact that scarlet fever is more prevalent in the state this year than last and it is only natural that Bridgeport should have its share of cases.

But anyway the men who think women will never be informed as politicians are about the same ones who spend most of their time reading the sporting page.

HOWLAND'S

Entrances in Main Street, Fairfield Avenue, and Cannon Street

Forecast: Fair tonight and Wednesday; warmer tonight.

There may be more important things just now than the question of new clothes for Easter—but, frankly, we doubt it.

Women and men are alike thinking of that question. Young folks have it firmly and pleasantly in mind. Boys and girls are eagerly waiting the day of choosing—and of wearing.

See the Howland clothes first—that is good advice to men as well as to women. And what a fine collection is to be seen and chosen from.

Every new fashion that is worthwhile. Every new fabric which has beauty and worth. Every delighting color for Spring. All, all, are ready!

The new suits, the new dresses, the clever new coats, the pretty underclothes, the handsome hats, the pleasing new shoes,—what delight women will find in choosing!

The topcoats, the snappy suits, the rich ties, the lively and fine new shirts the colorful silken socks, the alert new shoes,—how men are going to enjoy choosing!

It is a fine and worthy and attractive storeful of good clothes that we invite you to pick from. The earlier you pick, the more you will enjoy it—picking at leisure is better than picking in a hurry.

TROUBLE NOW
HOUSATONIC

Serious trouble is feared by those who have property along the Housatonic near Sandy Hook. An ice gorge is forming near Little York two miles above Sandy Hook, and to day there is a possibility that the river may cut a new channel to go around the piled-up ice.

Information from Newtown yesterday indicated that the river is on the rise and that the ice is jamming worse than ever.

From the dam at Stevenson, comes the information that only 4 1/2 feet of water have gone over the dam at the most and this is believed insufficient to carry off the water fast enough to avoid danger.

WHY WAS HE THROWN OUT?

The New York World of yesterday created a sensation by publishing what considered an exposure of the Wood campaign for the presidency. This is the work that John T. King of this state undertook and from which he summarily retired recently, rumor having it that he retired because he had to. If he was seeking revenge he seems to have secured some. Its effect on himself remains to be seen. He seems to have been in it with the rest. Maybe they will come out now and tell why they threw him out.

NORTHERN LIGHTS
GIVE WONDERFUL
EXHIBIT IN SKY

The Aurora Borealis visited this city last night and gave a thrilling exhibition in the sky which was witnessed by thousands of Bridgeporters. Those who didn't see the strange flashes of light for themselves were called from the bedside by relatives or friends. The light assumed various shapes and moved about the northern sky so as to assume new forms every few minutes. The Aurora Borealis is frequently seen in this section in April and October.

The manufacturers cheerfully pay advanced their prices enough to offset it.

Senators who can't agree to get together and do anything, are very likely to find the people agreeing to leave them at home.

WEEKLY MORBIDITY REPORT.
